

Avans University of Applied Sciences

Avans Scholarship Programme

Avans University of Applied Sciences is committed to recruiting talented and excellent students. Since 1 September 2009, we offer a scholarship programme for the best performing foreign students.

Level of study	Bachelor
Fields of study	International Business and Management Studies Finance and Control Molecular Research and Biotechnology Environmental Technology and Management Information Technology
Scholarship amount	The maximum Avans scholarship is € 3,000 per year for the best performing students who have paid the institutional tuition fee of € 7,500 (2009-2010). If you receive a discount on your institutional tuition fee of less than the maximum scholarship, you will only be eligible for a maximum amount of € 3,000 minus this discount. Every student is eligible to receive a maximum of two scholarships during the entire study programme. If you receive a scholarship, it will only be granted as a discount on the tuition fee for your re-enrolment in the next academic year. Avans scholarships are never paid in cash or transferred to a bank account. This does not apply if you receive a scholarship for your graduation year. Avans University of Applied Sciences will be temporarily offering this scholarship programme for the period of 2009 – 2011. At present it cannot be guaranteed the scholarship programme will be continued afterwards.
Number of scholarships	approximately 80
Eligibility criteria	Foreign students eligible for an Avans scholarship must meet at least the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none">have paid an institutional tuition fee for the current academic year.have obtained at least 60 ECTS during this academic year
Application information	By registering as a non-EEA student for a study programme at Avans University of Applied Sciences you automatically apply for this programme. At the end of each academic year, the Avans Scholarships for Best Performing Foreign Students will be automatically awarded to the top-ranking eligible students.
Further information	www.avans.nl