

VU University Amsterdam

VU Fellowship Programme

VU University Amsterdam offers scholarships to excellent, promising students who take part in our international degree programmes. General criteria for selection are excellence and motivation. Faculties may have additional criteria.

Level of study	Bachelor (International Business Administration), Master
Fields of study	Economics and Business Law Health and Movement Humanities Natural Sciences Social and Behavioral Sciences
Scholarship amount	between € 3,000 to € 14,000 (per year) for non-EER students
Number of scholarships	aprx. 200 (2008)
Conditions of the programme	Students must be enrolled in an international Master's programme (specified in their application to VU University Amsterdam) or in the international Bachelor's programme at VU University Amsterdam; Those students who are subject to a visa requirement must be able to satisfy Dutch visa requirements; (Part of the)Tuition fees is paid by the central International Office of VU University Amsterdam directly to the Student Administration; If there is an amount left, this will be paid in five instalment throughout the academic year; Students must be registered with the department of Student Admissions, to whom they must have provided full details of their name and address. If the student leaves the university, without obtaining a degree, the scholarship will have to reimbursed If the students finishes his degree during the academic year, the scholarship will be stopped Additional term and conditions by faculty
Deadline	1 April 2010
Application information	There is possibility to ask for scholarships during the online application procedure (in Olaas)
Further information	www.vu.nl
NB!	Please note that this is only a partial scholarship! Possible changes in the procedure or in the terms and conditions will be published on this website.