

University of Groningen

University of Groningen Talent Grant

Candidates applying for some of the master's programmes of the University of Groningen can be awarded a scholarship when they are not able to self-finance in full and are not eligible for other funding

Level of study	Master
Programmes	LL.M. Criminal Law and Criminology LL.M. European Law LL.M. International and Comparative Private Law LL.M. International Economic and Business Law LL.M. International Law and the Law of International Organizations MA Art History and Archaeology MA Classical Medieval and Renaissance Studies MA Linguistics MA Literary and Cultural Studies MA Modern History and International Relations MA Religion and Culture MSc Behavioural and Social Sciences MSc Educational Sciences MSc Pedagogic MSc Psychology
Scholarship amount	Differs. Please refer to www.rug.nl/prospectivestudents/scholarships
Eligibility criteria	A selection committee will review the applications. Students are selected on the basis of academic merit.
Deadline for application	May 1
Application information	Candidates can apply for this grant by sending a letter of motivation (in Word, max. 500 words) in which they indicate that they are in need of a grant and would like to be considered for the UGTG.
Further information	www.rug.nl/prospectivestudents/scholarships