

Tilburg University

Tilburg University Scholarship Programme

Tilburg University has a number of scholarships available for excellent non-EEA students who are admitted to one of the Master's programmes (MA, MSc or LLM).

Level of study	Master
Fields of study	Economics and business administration Law Humanities Social and behavioral sciences
Scholarship amount	Tilburg University Scholarships include (for the academic year 2010-2011): A partial tuition waiver; students pay only a fee of a maximum of € 2,550; for most of the programmes this implies a fee reduction of € 7,956 € 5,000 or € 10,000 for the covering of living expenses for one academic year. The university will decide whether a student will be awarded a single (€ 5,000) or a double (€ 10,000) scholarship.
Number of scholarships	50
Duration of scholarship	Scholarships are awarded for one academic year. Candidates applying for one of the Research Master programmes have to apply for the scholarship again for their second year of the Research Master programme.
Eligibility criteria	Candidates must have graduated with excellent results in their (under)graduate programme. Candidates should provide at least two independent letters of reference. Candidates must have been admitted to one of the graduate programmes at Tilburg University.
Application information	When you apply for a Master's programme at Tilburg University you will automatically be considered for the Tilburg University Scholarship Programme. The application deadline for Master's programmes is April 15th, 2010.
Further information	www.tilburguniversity.nl